(B) Sessions for admission of electors.

Delete all and substitute the following: "Two sets of provisions in the statutes dealing with the dates and hours of sessions for the admission of electors are to some extent alternatives and to some extent overlap.

(1) In one set of provisions, the statutes set forth quite specifically the days and hours of sessions. The requirements vary somewhat for towns of various sizes, as set forth below. In determining the population group into which the town falls, the last completed census of the United States shall be used. (S. 391c).

(a) In towns of 50,000 or more.

In the third week of May, June, July, August and September of even-numbered years. The day of the week shall be designated by the board of admission of electors. The sessions shall be held at such hours, but not less than three consecutive hours, between 9 a.m. and 8 p.m. as the board designates.

On the Saturday of the fifth week before each regular election from 9 a.m. to 8 p.m. The board may publicly adjourn this session from time to time, if necessary, until the Saturday of the fourth week.

On Saturday of the fourth week from 9 a.m. to 8 p.m.

On the last weekday before the election for not less than two hours between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m. for the purpose of admitting those persons whose rights have matured. They shall not have power to admit any applicant on this day whose qualification of age or residence matured, or who was naturalized on or before the Saturday of the fourth week before the election.

(b) In towns of 10,000 to 49,999.

Same as for (c) except that the session on the Saturday of the fifth week before the regular election shall be held from 9 a.m. to 8 p.m.

(c) In towns of 5,000 to 9,999.

In the third week of June, July, August and September of even-numbered years. The day of the week shall be designated by the board for admission of electors. The sessions shall be held at such hours, but not less than three consecutive hours, between 9 a.m. and 8 p.m. as the board designates.

On the Saturday of the fifth week before each regular election from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. The board may publicly adjourn this session from time to time, if necessary, until the Saturday of the third week.

On the Saturday of the fourth week from 9 a.m. to 8 p.m. On the last weekday before the election for not less than two consecutive hours between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m. for the purpose of admitting those persons whose rights have matured. They shall not have power to admit any applicant on this day whose qualification of age or residence matured, or who was naturalized on or before the Saturday of the third week before the election.

(d) In towns of 2,000 to 4,999.

Same as for (c) except that there is no session in the third week of June.

(e) In towns of less than 2,000.

Same as for (c) except that there is no session in the third week of June. or July.

Also in any town with fewer than 1,500 registered voters, the town meeting may authorize the board to hold sessions at different hours from those specified; however, any such session must be held between 9 a.m. and 8 p.m. and must be for not less than three consecutive hours. (S. 408-9c).

(2) In the other set of provisions, the town meeting may authorize sessions on days and hours in addition to those listed in (1). However, no such sessions shall be authorized to be held during the four weeks prior to any regular election. Any session authorized shall be for not less than three consecutive hours between 9 a.m. and 8 p.m. (S. 410c).

The board must give notice of the times and places of its sessions by publication in a newspaper published or circulated in its town and by posting the notice on the signpost of the town at least three days before any such session. (S. 407c)."

(S.558c). The selectmen shall provide seventy-five foot markers. They shall consist of a board resting on an iron rod. The board shall be not less than twelve inches square and painted a bright color. They shall bear the figures and letters '75 feet' and the following words: 'No person shall solicit in behalf of another or himself or peddle or offer any ballot, advertising matter or circular to another person within seventy-five feet of any entrance to any polling place on the day of the election.' (S. 577c)."

Delete fourth paragraph and substitute the following four paragraphs: "Convene special town elections when deemed necessary; on application of twenty electors, a special town election shall be called within ten days after the application has been received. (S. 491c).

The warning of each town election shall specify the objects for which the election is to be held. It shall be signed by at least a majority of the selectmen.

Either a printed or written copy of the warning must be posted upon each of the signposts in the town, and the warning must appear in a newspaper published or circulated in the town. Any town, may at an annual meeting, designate additional places at which the warnings shall be posted. The posting and publication shall be at least five days previous to holding the election, including the day that notice is given but not including the day of the election. The selectman shall, on or before the day of the election, leave a copy of the warning with the town clerk and he shall record it. (S. 548c).

The person who gives the notice of the warning shall make a written statement to the town clerk showing the notice given. (S. 549c)."
